

The reassuring benefits of in-home services are highly preferred by thousands of clients and families. It's localized nature and the given domestic convenience are widely-chosen options throughout communities among other placement settings. It is for this reason that more and more clients are turning to this type of aid while significantly preserving their dignity and maximizing allowable independence. But what makes a client eligible for in-home services? What do you need to know and what admission requirements are necessary to proceed with the service? Get the information you need about eligibility criteria and determine your own qualification to relish in your own freedom at home.

How Do I Get In-Home Care Services?

Set an appointment online or give us a call at 203-748-0103 so we could visit you at home for a free skills evaluation, eligibility examination, and home safety assessment. Professionals will guide you through the process.

Call us today!
203-748-0103

Services We Offer

- ✓ Homemaker
- ✓ Companion
- ✓ Home Health Aide
- ✓ Personal Care Attendant
- ✓ Live-In-Care
- ✓ Transportation Service

AT-HOMECARE
OF CT, LLC
Where Caring Comes First

AT-HOMECARE
OF CT, LLC
Where Caring Comes First

www.athomecareofct.com

What Makes You
HOME CARE
ELIGIBLE?

Examining Your Qualifications

By choosing At-HomeCare of CT, LLC for your services, our professional team will immediately process the roll-out of an exclusive visit to your home so we could conduct the required initial procedures to begin the in-home service. The results of the client's current skills and home safety assessment will help us identify the level of care they need.

An eligible status is given to the patient who is:

- ★ In need of assistance with walking, transferring, and ambulation
- ★ Is either bed-bound, home-bound, or finds it extremely daunting to leave home without another person's or a device's assistance
- ★ An elderly
- ★ Recuperating and transitioning from facility confinement or care
- ★ Given a doctor's recommendation to receive home care

Covered Services

Once deemed eligible for service, the patient is now entitled to receive the services prescribed and/or recommended under his/her plan of care. We will take the necessary step to provide you with the right caregiver professional that matches your preferences. The following services are available for procurement 24/7:

- ★ Companionship
- ★ Home Health Aid
- ★ Personal Care Assistance
- ★ Homemaking
- ★ Transportation Services

Non-Discriminatory

At-HomeCare of CT, LLC is an equal-opportunity provider and employer. We are an agency that holds prime recognition to fair treatment, unbiased judgment, and service without prejudice. By this, we do not discriminate any patient or applicant on the mere bases of religion or creed, national origin or ethnicity, gender or sexual orientation, civil status, and handicap on the admission, rehabilitation, treatment, employment, or the conduct of any transaction through direct participation or via a contractor.

Patient Information Protection Policy

Any client information obtained by At-HomeCare of CT, LLC through any company transaction are kept with utmost confidentiality under our patient information non-disclosure policy and shall not be shared with any third party rationales unless as ordered by law.